The Team

Based in our swanky brand new offices, you'll be working with a group of great people who think independently but collaborate as a strong team to deliver exceptional results. Career progression? Absolutely - there are plenty of opportunities to grow and develop, as our rapid growth continues.

This Role

This is an excellent opportunity to join us on our fast-growth journey!

We're looking for a Conversion Optimisation Lead to join our team to super-charge our website conversion rate and maximise sales through the power of data-driven design.

This is a unique role and we're looking for a very special person; you need to be both a skilled designer and be able to interpret test-result data (oh and you need to dabble in code, too).

Reporting directly to the Design Manager, you'll lead on creating ideas and hypotheses on our website UX and UI design, imagery and copy. You'll implement split-tests and analyse the data to determine what works and what doesn't, what helps and what hinders conversions. Over time you'll become super familiar with what words, images and styles resonate with our audience and encourage them to click 'buy'.

This is a newly created role to support the ongoing fast-growth of the organisation. It's an enormously satisfying position, knowing that you have helped lift conversions, through the clever use of copy, imagery and design.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Collaborating with our design and development team, together with other stakeholders, to help drive the user experience on our website and soon, mobile app
- Leading weekly conversion optimisation strategy meetings with management
- Formulating ideas and hypothesis to keep our testing roadmap full
- Implementing design changes necessary to test ideas and run split-tests using Google Optimise and our own, in house software, SPARK
- Interpreting raw data test results, turn them into insights and presenting those finding to senior management

You'll excel in this role if you have the following skills & experience:

- Some experience with design software, preferably the Adobe Creative Suite
- A working knowledge of basic front-end development including HTML & CSS
- A demonstrable ability to interpret data (preferably split test results)
- You must be interested in what makes people click 'buy' and how they can be encouraged to do that more often
- Some experience of ecommerce would be helpful
- Experience using Google Optimise, Google Analytics and Klaviyo would be advantageous, but not essential.
